

Home School Agreement

Manland Primary School is a supportive, caring community in which we encourage each other to achieve our potential in everything that we do.

The aim of this Home-School Agreement is to encourage and support all children to make the most of their time at Manland Primary School.

Manland Primary School

The school will:

- Provide the best possible opportunities for each child's academic, social and moral development in a happy, safe environment and value them as individuals
- Contact parents/carers if there is a problem with your child's well-being, attendance, punctuality, health, equipment or any other factor having an impact on their well-being or learning
- Be open and welcoming at all times, provide relevant information and offer opportunities for parents/carers to become involved in school life
- Send appropriate work home to support each child's progress
- Let parents/carers know about any concerns or problems that affect a child's work or well-being or behaviour
- Provide regular assessments and an annual written report for each pupil
- Arrange parent/carer Consultation evenings at which each pupil's progress will be discussed
- Support parents and carers to improve their knowledge of school life through parent workshops and information

Signed: Mrs Wicks Headteacher

- Governors will continue to support, challenge and hold leaders to account to ensure school leaders are providing the best possible provision for all pupils

Signed: L Montgomery Chair of Governors

Please note: A Home-School Agreement is not a legally binding document.

We expect children at Manland to:

- Behave and conduct themselves in a way that is inspirational to others
- Take responsibility for their actions
- Have high aspirations for themselves and those around them
- Tell their parents, carers or a grown up in school if anything is worrying them
- Be polite, friendly and well-mannered
- Behave with kindness and consideration for others at all times
- Look after the school environment
- Be respectful and welcoming of others, their culture, race, abilities & beliefs
- Do their homework learning as well as they can and hand it in on time
- Help everyone to have a happy and enjoyable time at Manland Primary School

We expect Parents and Carers to:

- Work with the school to ensure that their child maximises the opportunities provided for their academic, social and moral development
- See that their child arrives at school properly equipped and on time, and provide notice and explanation of any absence
- Speak to the class teacher or a senior member of staff if there are any concerns so that issues may be addressed without delay
- Read communications from school and respond promptly where necessary
- Support the school's policies and guidelines for children's behaviour
- Support their child with homework and encourage other opportunities for learning at home
- Treat all members of staff and the school community with respect
- Attend Parent/Carer Consultation evenings to discuss their child's progress
- Support the school's ethos towards parental engagement and contribute, where possible
- Follow our Parent Code of Conduct
