

Wednesday 7th October 2018

Ch 3

LO: To plan and write a description of a chosen person of note.

Remember to...

Organise your writing into paragraphs

Use powerful adjectives, hyphenated words, similes and metaphors to describe their appearance and personality

Use commas for parenthesis

Write in the past tense.

Mary Curie

Who was she?

Mary Curie, who was born as Marie Skłodowska, was born ^{Capitals} on the seventh November 1867 in Warsaw, Poland. She ^{is was} ~~was~~ a great scientist and in many ways and discovered ~~lots~~ lots of different ~~the~~ ^{potentials} ~~medicines~~*. In her form, in secondary school, she was the top student ~~her~~ and her university, accepted her ~~potential~~ ^{potential} in all ways.

Family

~~Marie Curie was in 1897~~ When Marie Curie was twenty-seven she got married to a famous scientist, Peirre Curie. In 1897 they had a daughter, who was called Irene, ^{and who} ~~as that had a~~ followed her mother's ⁰ footsteps to win the noble award. They had another daughter Eve, who helped her mum with science, in 1904.

Her Discoveries

In her working life, she ~~discovered~~ discovered radium and polonium. Both of which are used for luminous paint and cancer medicines. They both ~~is~~ very useful except when you can get radioactive poisoning which is very bad for you. Her discoveries were amazing. In 1903 she ~~won~~ was the first woman to win the noble award.